Welcome to the Aberdeen & North-East Scotland Family History Society

The Aberdeen & North-East Scotland Family History Society (ANESFHS) exists to promote the study of genealogy and family history based in the north-east corner of Scotland. This area covers the old counties of Aberdeenshire, Banffshire, Kincardineshire and Morayshire. We also hold records for the whole of Scotland and a considerable amount of data on the rest of the U.K. as well as many places around the world where Scots can be found.

The Society owns premises in the centre of Aberdeen with a well stocked library and a huge selection of microfilm, microfiches and CD resources. The library has over 5,500 books on its shelves plus journals from other societies worldwide, magazines, ancestor charts and maps.

Regular meetings are held throughout the year, covering many topics of interest to family historians. Meetings are held in Aberdeen, Edinburgh, Elgin, Glasgow and in the West Midlands of England.

In addition to our premises, our website – www.anesfhs.org.uk provides information and resources for our members.

Full Membership

Full membership entitles you to access the Society's premises and you will receive four printed copies of the Society's quarterly Journal for each year of membership. In addition, you are entitled to full access to our website.

e-Membership

e-Membership entitles you to access the Society's premises and enables full access to our website, from where you can read or download the Society's quarterly Journal.

Website

In order to get the most from your membership, you should register your membership at our website – got to our website www.anesfhs.org.uk and click on the Register link at the top right of the page. For further assistance, please visit www.anesfhs.org.uk/how-to-register

Once you have registered, you will be able access our growing list of members-only features, including:

- All our Journals from 1979 onwards
- Monumental Inscription look-ups for many N.E. Scotland graveyards
- A members' forum for exchange of ideas, assistance etc